TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Please Forgive Us If We Are A Little Bit Proud

said we are not delighted at winning three first places in the Better Newspaper Contests of the California News-

To win a first for the best Page 1, or for the best editorial page or for the best typography among all the papers of California above 10,000 circulation, would be something to be proud of by itself. Together, we are about splitting our buttons.

The reason, of course, is that this is what we strive to do, to give you the best possible paper within our abilities. It is not just the work of one or two individuals. These awards are the result of a complicated joint effort of a couple of hundred persons, winding up with a teen-age boy tossing the paper on your porch. If he puts it on the roof, the whole effort is in vain.

The typography award is one of which we are particularly proud because it is directly the result of so many people's pearance of the entire paper. It includes advertising, the headlines, the use of type, of pictures, general makeup of the pages and even the presswork. Not just of one page, but every page in the

Because we submitted a Saturday and a Monday edition, it also includes Marin Magazine.

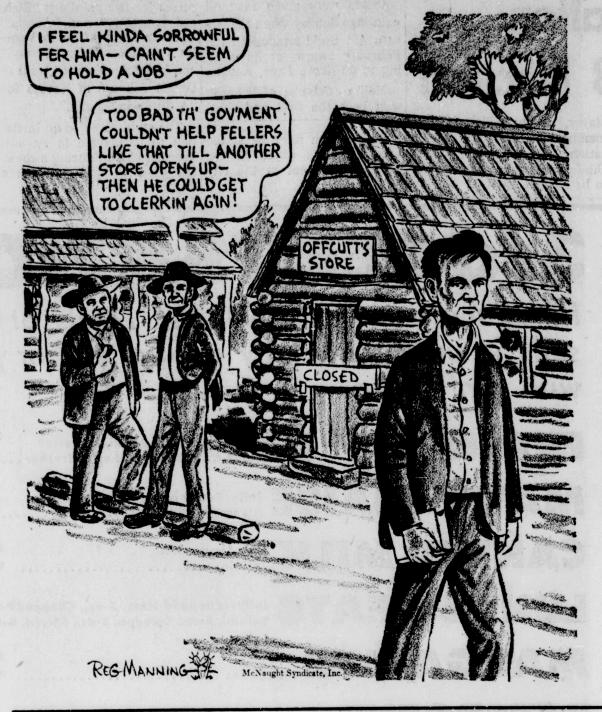

The advertising typography, for example, was judged on, and we quote the rules, "effective use of facts, illustrations, borders, ornaments and other units." The headlines, makeup and presswork were similarly judged.

The award said, in effect, that we have the best looking newspaper in the state.

When to this is added the best Page 1 and the best editorial page, contests in which content as well as looks were judged, perhaps you can forgive us for being just a bit proud.

We pledge to continue giving you the best newspaper we possibly can, whether we win contests in the future or not.

Shelters Are Out Of Question

Independent-Journal:

In the Feb. 1 issue of the I-J, I read Dr. Barbour's column on the subject of how to protect your family from fall out. I was very much surprised to find that Dr. Barbour would advise building shelters against fall out from a nuclear war. To my mind fallout shelters are altogether out of the question. I shall give several reasons for thinking so: 1. Who can build a fallout shelter? I for one cannot because I do not have the money and there are millions like me. So we millions, cannot depend on the fallout shelter for protection from nuclear war. 2. Is the fallout shelter safe for those who can build them? I say "no" definitely. How can we live under ground? How long can a human being endure life underground? We who are accustomed to sunshine, air and room to move about, how can we think of taking up abodes underground? We should leave that sort of life to the mole. How can we be assured that the shelter is safe once we do get into it? Where will we get our air supply? Thru pipes from above ground? Are we sure that those pipes will not be broken by the first nuclear blast? What provision is there in a shelter for garbage and waste disposal?

3. Let us assume for the moment, that we were secure in our family shelters while the nuclear war was on. The war is now finished and we have come out of our shelters. What do we find? Destruction everywhere; the world a waste land, dead bodies of the millions who could not build shelters are everywhere. The water is polluted, the air is polluted. All vegetation is destroyed, all animal life is destroyed. The earth is polluted.

How do those people who were saved in the family shelters begin to live on earth again? How can they go on with all the devastation around them? I should much prefer to be among the dead than among the living at such a time.

Dr. Barbour harks back to

Supervisors Due Salary Increase

Independent-Journal:

On the front page of tonight's edition (Feb. 6) of the Independent-Journal Mr. Wellman and I noted with pleasure a short item about the Board of Supervisors having voted in favor of an increase in compensation for Marin County Supervisors from $500 to $800 per month in support of a recommendation of the county grand jury to the state legislature to that effect.

We wish to indicate our hearty endorsement of this recommendation, Marin County is now big business and the problems are so many and becoming so complex that much more time and effort of the supervisors is now required to keep up with the work load so that almost no time is left for a conscientious supervisor to make a living.

With the rapid population increase—both in Marin and the entire San Francisco Bay area—it is to be expected that the demand for concentrated effort on the part of our supervisors will increase; certainly it will not diminish.

To keep good men on the job and to attract other good men to it will require compensation at a more attractive level than at present. It is hoped that the Independent-Journal will support this view.

Some meetings ago, Charles Joseph, director of public works for Novato, and the City Council were discussing the causes of poor drainage on Olive Avenue.

The trend of the conversation was that the newer streets, like Chase, Peach, Plum and Cherry were dumping more water on Olive Avenue than it had carried for many years. It was brought out that some of these streets had been elevated over their original grade, thus making them drain more into Olive cannot afford to remain indifferent to an adequate fallout shelter program.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

McNamara Pleads For Realistic Shelter Program To Save Lives

Many congressmen may still think it is politically safe to pooh-pooh the danger and neglect the lives of millions of Americans by refusing to support an effective civil defense. They figure that public opinion is so apathetic and fatalistic that nobody will notice who's to blame - before it is too late.

I believe this voter apathy will yield steadily to the practical, it-can-be-done proposals which Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara is now presenting to the country and to Congress.

PUBLIC INDIFFERENCE to a realistic fallout shelter program rests on a whole series of fictions—the fiction that it is unattainable, that it won't really save lives, that if nuclear war comes everybody will perish.

None of this is so. McNamara has just put into the hands of the members of the House and Senate a renewed plea which should turn apathy into alertness.

He reports that a national shelter survey has located spaces able to provide fallout protection to more than 100 million Americans. He says that 70 per cent of this space can be readied for use "this year." He proposes a $175 million program to help civic and non-profit institutions adapt their buildings for shelter quarters.

McNAMARA'S APPEAL to Congress to give the shelter program a high priority rests on these facts:

The danger grows. The Soviet Union is rapidly hardening and burying its missile launching sites. This means that, whatever our superiority in nuclear weapons and military power, there is nothing we can do to destroy the Soviet capacity to strike the United States a devastating blow.

Four months ago Soviet the duration.

WASHINGTON - Congress missiles were secretly poised on site 90 miles from our shores. There is no guarantee that Khrushchev won't try it again. It is fantastically wishful to close our minds to the danger and hope it won't hap-

> Adequate shelters are a source of military strength. The Joint Chiefs of Staff support the shelter program as a means of strengthening our total defense; they ask Congress to approve them "as an integral part of our defense posture." With shelters for civilians, the military can do its part much better.

A shelter program decreases the danger of war. Adequate shelters will help insure the U. S. of survival if there is nuclear war. They are a deterrent against surprise attack. They make attack less likely because the enemy will know we are better prepared to take it and get up off our knees to fight back.

SHELTERS ARE a humane necessity. No one denies that there will be a cruel loss of life if there is nuclear war. Many would be killed in the immediate areas of direct blast. But who would propose to disband the Red Cross because natural catastrophes cannot be prevented and their effects only partly alleviated? Let's do all we can to protect as many people as possible should the worst come.

I am convinced that when these facts become better known public apathy will substantially vanish and that the American people will be wondering why Congress was so tardy in acting.

MARIN LOOKS AT POLITICS

Political Fever Beginning To Break Out In School Races

By CHAPIN A. DAY

It may be something in the air this Spring. But political fever seems to be breaking out all over. There's even a contest for two seats on the Ross District school board. Three have already announced and none of them is an incumbent. That's a rare situation.

In the San Rafael School Districts 'CHIP' DAY there may be an incumbent slate of candidates, an opposition slate of candidates and one or two unattached candi-

Mrs. Walter J. Tait, active P-TA leader and chairman of the American Field Service student exchange program, is under consideration. Carl J. "Red" Brown, chairman of the recreation commission, is just trying to work out enough time to get down and enter the lists.

But there are still a number of vacancies on the school slates with three weeks left to register.

On the County Board of Education, Mrs. Alce Ann (Nancy) Cole hasn't made up her mind whether she'll seek re-election or let her husband, Theodore (Ted) Cole run in her place. He is a former member. The other two incumbents not yet announced, Walter L. Johnson and Dr. Frederick J. Saam, had agreed to seek election at the time of their appointment to the board a year or so ago.

But only two of the four Marin Junior College incumbents and no challengers have signed up. Nine districts have no candidates at all. We hope the fever is catch-

Use Throw-In Play When Breaks Seem Bad For You At Bridge

This week we will devote | You would let this ride Blue. ourselves to the throw-in play, around to dummy's king, disoften called the "end-play." covering from West's discard off diplomatic relations with You throw an opponent into that the suit fails to break. Israel after terrorists bombed the lead at a time when any return will be faborable.

This kind of play may protect you against a bad break in a key suit.

You know perfectly well how your partner would play this hand. He would take the first diamond, draw three rounds of trumps, and test the clubs.

DISCOVERED

On discovering the bad club break, he would take the ace of hearts and try a finesse with dummy's jack of hearts.

The finesse would lose, and the opponents would cash a diamond to defeat the contract.

Your partner would then point out that it took a 4-1 club break and a losing heart finesse to beat him.

BAD YEAR

"It's a bad year for finesses," you would say sympathetically. But you would make a note to look around for a new partner-or, at any rate, to bid these difficult hands so that you could play them yourself.

The heart finesse is not needed. After drawing three rounds of trumps you cash dummy's ace of clubs. Then you take the two high hearts and ruff a heart.

Now lead a diamond and let the opponents struggle over the trick. A heart or diamond return allows you to ruff in dummy and discard a club from your hand.

CLUB RETURN

If you get a club return (from either side), you can let it ride to fourth hand. Then, even if the clubs break badly, you will be able to take a club finesse to avoid the loss of a club trick.

As the cards lie, for example, East might win the diamond and return the jack of clubs.

The services performed by realtors are both expensive to render, and important to everyone.

It is the function of a realtor to see that a buyer is found for his client's property, that the best possible fair price is paid, and that the maze of legal and technical details are properly

To find buyers, the members of the real estate profession actively create a demand for real property. To do it, they incur heavy expenses for advertising. In the process, they constantly improve the American standard of living,

The average seller has no very clear idea of how much his property is worth. He is apt to overvalue it, and thus make it impossible to sell, as he is to undervalue it and thus deprive himself of a fair return. Realtors, with first-hand day-to-day knowledge of property values, perform a valuable service in suggesting the best

Like almost everything else, real property these days is purchased on the installment plan. How he finances his purchases is up to the buyer, of course. But to conclude a sale on behalf of the seller, a real estate broker frequently is called upon to assist the purchaser in locating the most attractive financing to suit the particular transaction. A realtor must have a vast and up-to-date knowledge of the money markets as well as of the property markets.

Does it cost you more -or lessto lease a car compared to buying outright?

If you make a really good buy on a new How much does it cost to car, and sell it at a good price in a favorable used car market two or three years later, your overall cost should run about the same dollar-wise as if you had leased your car from Varner-Ward. But if you buy with just an average discount and sell in an average or weak used car market, we can prove that you will be dollars ahead by leasing the Varner-Ward way.

The reason is very simple. At Varner-Ward we buy in volume - we will spend nearly six million dollars on new cars for leasing this year. The prices we pay are way below what any local company or individual would pay.

This explains why we at Varner-Ward can work out a lease plan for you that is so very competitive. But when you do business with us, you'll soon discover many other advantages to convince you that the Varner-Ward lease plan is the only way to fully enjoy a new car.

What's so special about Varner-Ward service?

Every car we lease is new. It has never before been used as a demonstrator or in any other capacity. We buy from authorized new car dealers and each car carries a full dealer-manufacturer warranty.

Before we even deliver your newly leased car, we have our own service representa-tive inspect it to see that all the equipment you ordered is in the car. We also road-test your car to make sure it will perform properly. We believe half of our service problems (which means half of yours) can be corrected before your car

When your car needs servicing or repair, Warner-Ward helps you. We have four men who do nothing but pick up and deliver automobiles. We also have 25 new 1963 cars available to lend to customers whose cars are being serviced. It costs us over $25,000 a year just to provide customers this free car loan service.

Our service representative also handles any complaints you may have during the life of the lease. Because it's their job to help you personally and make sure you become a repeat customer, they welcome the opportunity to demonstrate Varner-Ward service. They also help you get the best possible treatment from the different dealer service departments.

And they help you use our fleet purchasing power to get substantial discounts on tires, batteries, brake relines, and car parts. As one of the largest purchasers of automobiles on the West Coast, we place considerable bargaining and purchasing power at your disposal!

Here's what you pay to the penny each month to lease typical 1963 models from Varner-Ward. There is no added deposit, no down payment, no special charges, no hidden cost. And, no re-sale obligation or worry about depreciation! Compare these prices, not only with those of other leasing companies, but with the costs of buying the same models. Figures below are on Varner-Ward 24-month Straight Lease:

Who pays for maintenance, license, and insurance?

You do, because you operate your Varner-Ward car just as if you owned it. You drive it as you want. You pay for your own gas, maintenance and license fees. from the company of your choice, or we arrange for your insurance at a fleet rate.

Why we returned $53,000 to our customers

We used to ask for a deposit when a customer leased a car because everyone else in the auto leasing industry said you had to. However, Varner-Ward's records show that their customers are not only prompt in their payment of monthly fees, but have been more than fair in any settlement of differences. So a few months ago, we returned to our customers all of the deposits they had made, over $53,000 in total. We did not have to do this, but we feel that when you deal fairly with customers they will deal fairly with you.

That's the way we want to do business. Your capital isn't tied up

When you buy a car, you tie-up your capital either in the down payment or in the purchase price. But when you lease from Varner-Ward, there is absolutely no down payment or deposit—no lump pay-ment of any kind. Your capital is free for you to invest as you choose.

Is it better for you tax-wise to lease? Or buy? We do not practice tax accounting; we refer you to your own accountant for this answer, but it is usually agreed that it is easier to substantiate a cancelled check you get back from Varner-Ward than a depreciation schedule. Actual proof of expense is one thing Uncle Sam likes to see.

You don't gamble on the used car market

When you are ready to turn in your leased car, Varner-Ward takes all the risk of selling it. If the used car market isn't good, it's our problem—not yours. You don't have to haggle over how much trade-in you'll be allowed if you buy another car. There's no end-of-the-lease adjustment to balloon your final payment. It's our responsibility to sell the ment. It's our responsibility to sell the lease car whether it's a profit or loss. By the way, if you decide to lease from Varner-Ward, we'll even sell your present car for you, or you can sell it yourself.

Who can qualify to lease a Varner-Ward Car?

Since there is no deposit and no down payment, our credit requirements are fairly rigid. Fortunately, there are many people in Northern California who pay their bills promptly, and are fair in settl-ing any differences that may come up. These are the kind of people we have and want as customers, not just for one lease, but for life.
